Lighting the Way...One Life at a Time™

Bulletin Paragraphs for Sunday, January 31, 2010 and February 7, 2010

January 31, 2010

Our Lord Jesus preached to thousands, healed hundreds and led dozens of people. However, at the end of the day, He was intimately concerned about that one degraded woman, that one forgotten child, that one sickly man. For forty years, Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest has served groups, churches, communities and individuals "one life at a time." Sunday, February 14, is LSS-SW Sunday! Join Lutheran congregations throughout the southwest as we thank God for this vital ministry in our midst! ### February 7, 2010

What do people in Arizona and the greater southwest have in common? For forty years, Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest (LSS-SW) has been alongside them! Maybe it was with immigrant families; individuals or couples in distress; food, clothing or shelter needs. Whatever the need, LSS-SW was there to help individuals and families remove barriers and live more fulfilled lives. Such concern continues to be central to the human care shown in touching people "one life at a time." February 14 has been designated LSS-SW Sunday by the Grand Canyon Synod and Bishop Steve Talmage. Give thanks to God for this ministry of assistance and compassion in Jesus' Name! Please visit www.lss-sw.org
