Gracious and merciful God and Lord, You have blessed, guided, encouraged, and remained faithful to Your people throughout history. You have led them to show kindness, mercy, assistance and peace to friend and stranger. Loving Lord, we give thanks that You have worked in and through Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest for forty years. We give thanks for strong leaders, committed workers, and faithful supporters.

As we look to the future, continue to move in us by Your Word and Spirit. As we are blessed, use us as blessings to others. Work through this vital ministry to be the hands and feet, eyes and ears, and the very heart of Jesus Christ to others. Give to the leaders Your wisdom and insight, that many more will be served, and many will experience the love of God in Christ.

Work in us to support and encourage those in this ministry and those who receive its services. By Your grace and favor, continue to guide Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest, and bless them in "Lighting the Way . . . One Life at a Time." All this we pray in the Name of our loving and compassionate Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Gracious Heavenly Father, We remember this day the work of Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest. For over forty years, Lutheran Social Services personnel have been reflecting your call to love by showing kindness, doing justice, and serving all in need. Continue to bless their work in the coming years as they light the way one life at a time. Amen.
